Reading Questions for John Rawls

1. As a person in the original position what do we know about ourselves?
2. What is the purpose of the original position?
3. What are the two principles that we can extract from the original position?
4. Do you think that it is possible for a rational person to pick different principles of justice in the original position, why or why not?