Philosophy 102

Reading Questions on Robert Nozick

1. Does Nozick believe that fictional characters such as Sherlock Holmes and Edward from Twilight are real? Why or why not?
2. What does Nozick mean when he says something is real?
3. Do you think there is a distinction between something actually existing and something being real?
4. What would be the benefit of having reality vary in degrees rather than only being actual and not actual?