Study Guide, Test # 2
Philosophy 106

Chapter 6

1. Appeal to force (p. 186-188)
2. Appeal to emotion, Pity, Apple Polishing, Guilt Trip, Wishful Thinking and Peer Pressure (p. 188-191)
3. Argument from popularity “Appeal to the people” (p. 192-194)
4. Two wrongs make a right (196-197)
5. Red Herring (p. 197)

Chapter 7

1. Ad Hominem Fallacy: Abusive, Inconstancy, Circumstantial/Interested Party, Poisoning the Well and Genetic Fallacy. (p. 212-215)
2. Straw Man (p. 215-217)
3. False Dichotomy or False Dilemma (p. 217-220)
4. Slippery Slope (p. 21-22)
5. Misplaced Burden of proof (p. 22-224)
6. Appeal to Ignorance (p. 224-226)
7. Begging the Question (p. 229-228)

Fallacy of Composition and Division, Accidental Fallacy

Summary: Be able to do the following: recognize when informal fallacies are being committed in a passage, and explain why it represents an instance of that fallacy; provide a general definition of each informal fallacy.